

About us

WCL the company is made up of a passionate group of individuals whose lives have been changed by teaching English away from their home. We are so changed by the experience that we think it is something everyone should experience at least once in a lifetime. We're absolutely mad about the concept of travelling to a foreign country to teach English. This passion has led us to be the market leader in UK, Europe, and Middle East for providing TESOL training and resources for the industry. You'll notice our obsession with quality and innovation.
